BELMONT — A police department is hardcore judging a thief caught on surveillance.

A robbery attempt was caught on footage early Wednesday morning, and the Belmont Police are not impressed.

The Belmont Police Department reached out to the public on Facebook asking if they recognize "this thief in the night." Attached was a video of the unidentified thief attempting to rob a car washing business.

Police also suspect the man had no apparent plan to wash his car, which is described as a sporty dark blue, compact four-door, with no front license plate.

They mock the robber as an alarm goes off and describe his escape like, "a cockroach caught in the kitchen."

The person is described as a white male with dark hair, between 5-foot, 6 inches and 5-foot, 9 inches tall and weighing about 160-175 pounds.

If you recognize the person, please call 267-8350 and leave a tip with one of the Belmont officers. You do not need to leave your name if you so choose.
